Comments: After a thriller in Round 1, the Under 9's played another nail-biting game this time against East Malvern. The team played a magnificent game of football and managed to hang on for a great four point win. Our teamwork, vision and ball movement were the highlight of the game and the improvement all players are showing is very pleasing. We have a very exciting year ahead to look forward to.

Comments: The boys were very slow out of the blocks and it wasn't until after half time that they started to play to their potential. From that point on we dominated the game running hard for each other, getting first hands on the ball and sharing the football. Well done guys, next week we will work for a four quarter effort!

Comments: 2 Fantastic Quarters, One better than last week. Tim showed us all how to GO GO GO – Second efforts were great, Matt Young is a super star, showing exceptional skills in all departments. This season a win to us will be in the improvements we make, as long as the team improves from the previous week we are the winners. We defiantly won this week, Thomas was solid as always at half back, Paul, Dylan and Robby showed great form, Matty L as always worked hard in the Ruck, a great team game. This will be hard to improve on but I believe the boys are up to the Challenge.
