The second and third quarter was neck and neck with Alex Markovitch snagging a great goal and strong efforts aswell by Khalid Ahmed and Cooper Thompson. In the final quarter, the whole team dug deep to pile on 2 more goals with Rhyce Contreras, Zac Robertson and Wesley Wieclaw dominating. An excellent team win with all players getting involved, have a good break and see you all back on Thursday April 28 at training.Thomas Logistics - Under 9 White*Waverley Park Hawks 3.7.25 defeated by Mordialloc/ Braeside 9.7.61*Goal Kickers: Michael Ferracane (2), Will Pearce (1)Best Players: Great Team EffortCoaches Awards: Ethan Hele, Michael FerracaneCaptain/s: Michael Ferracane, Jake SoligoSummary: Great team effort by the Under 9 Whites for their first official game together. While we showed glimpses of how we can play through great teamwork and movement of the ball it was only in patches. Lachlan Bertram won the coaches award this week for the courage shown in his attack on the ball with some sensational marks taken running into packs. Good leadership was also shown by our captains for the day Darcy and Vincent. Watch out the next team we play when the boys put the full 4 quarters together. Summary: An extremely hard fought win. We were kept in the game early on by poor kicking from Prahran. To the boys credit they kept on competing well and their persistence finally paid off. A good lesson for all on how the hard contested footy and 1%'s can contribute to a win. Great Start Boys!

Summary: This week we came up against a very good team. We were outclassed for the first three quarters of the game, however, at 3/4 time I asked the boys and girls for a big effort to finish the game and to their credit they worked hard and won the last quarter which was so pleasing for us all. They must all continue to work on their fitness and skills at training and at home. Enjoy the break and we will start fresh in a couple of weeks. Go Hawks!

Summary: What a huge turnaround from last week. Today we started with renewed vigour at the ball and were prepared to share the ball around to bring our teammates into the game. Our work out of the centre was superb. It was great to see 13 individual goal kickers and 3 or 4 options to throw into the ruck as the guys got tired. Welcome to our 4 first gamers today Lee, Robert, Steve and Johnny today who all had very good games ... Welcome to the HAWKS

Summary: Today we played the 2010 Premiers. Last time we played them we lost by 72 points, this time though with a new team structure we were confident for a win, but with a couple of dropped marks and some bad decision making in the last quarter, it wasn't to be. The team have really stood up this year, there are many positives out of today's hit out. (i.e. intensity tackling and desire) Heads up team we are not far away, let's work on our skills and decision making at training this week and a win is not far away.
